

EMPLOYERS PARLEY WITH THEIR MEN IN ITALIAN STRIKE

Unions Are Ignored—Outlook for Settlement Said to Be Much Better.

ROME, Sept. 7.—In several cities where workers have occupied factories negotiations have started between owners of the plants and their employees, the unions being ignored, according to information received here. It is stated the situation is improving and that there are signs of good will on both sides, several Socialist members of the Chamber of Deputies declaring it is necessary to reach an agreement to end the conflict at once.

The decision of manufacturers to demand that workers evacuate factories before entering into negotiations is delaying the solution of the problem, it is stated, but official circles are optimistic. Reports that the movement would spread to State establishments are denied here.

A Genoa dispatch to the Giornale d'Italia says that in the entire industrial zone in that city the names of the works have been changed, placards on the facades of the plants calling them "Communist Soviet Works." In one plant, besides red and black flags, the walls are decorated with photographs of Lenin, Jaurès and Marx. One hundred men known as "Red guard" governed with the same disciplinary rule as the Italian Army.

The metal workers are embarrassed by the opposition they have encountered from the technical and administrative staffs of plants that have been taken over, according to newspapers here. The men have no adequate direction and expert advice in carrying on the work of the different factories, and are declared to have made advances to technical employees, asking them to make common cause with the workers.

The Engineers' Association has finally refused to consider this suggestion. Pietro Mascagni, the composer, was given an ovation by workmen at the Orlando factory at Leghorn yesterday when he visited the men. He left a written expression of his sympathy, and before leaving made a brief address.

"Your victory," he is quoted as saying, "will make an end of a shameful exploitation of labor. I wish you victory with my whole heart."

WAR WORKER HONORED.

Mrs. Farnam Guest of Serbian Women's Committee at Delmonico Luncheon.

About fifty well known men and women met yesterday at Delmonico's to initiate a series of luncheons to be given by the Women's Committee of One Hundred of the Serbian Child Welfare Association. Mrs. Mirtura Pinchot was hostess and the guest of honor was Mrs. Charles S. Farnam, who served with the Royal Serbian Army during the war.

Speakers at the luncheon were Mrs. Pinchot, Dr. Rosalie Slaughter Morton, who also has seen service in Serbia; John A. Kingsbury, William J. Doherty, Capt. Stanley H. Howe, National Chairman of the Serbian Child Welfare Association; V. R. Savic, Serbian Consul in New York; William Jay Schieffelin, President of the Association; and Miss Alice Carpenter, who outlined plans for the organization for the winter.
